HR TECH ISSUES? SOLVED.

Take Your Company to the Next Level

Increase Sales. Enter New Markets. Understand Your Competitors.

Advisory Services

Take your organization to the next level with Hive Tech HR's Advisory Services for Vendors. Our consultants are at the center of the HR technology industry. On a daily basis we are working with your competitors, your current and potential clients, your partners, and other consultants in the space. As a result, we are uniquely qualified to provide advisory services given our holistic understanding of the space and current trends.

Hive Tech HR's Advisory Services can help your organization:

- ✓ Get expert product evaluation and feedback
- ✓ Successfully enter new markets
- ✓ Increase sales
- ✓ Increase customer satisfaction and retention
- ✓ Find out how your products ranks against your competitors
- ✓ Get insight into upcoming trends
- ✓ Assess appropriate partners

Hive Tech Connect

The U.S. market is increasingly competitive. You need partners who can deliver sales. Hive Tech HR opens up new avenues for your product lines and provides highly social and interactive venues for our partners to participate in. The "Hive", our cross platform community, is vendor-inclusive and supports healthy dialogue between companies and their future clients.

You'll benefit from:

- ✓ New lead generation
- ✓ Increase community marketing through word of mouth, peer networking and customer influence

Hive Tech Mic

Got something to say to the HR tech marketplace, but no way to get the word out? Are you looking to create custom content and social presence on a limited timeline or budget?

Hive Tech Mic is a custom partnership that blends the best of your product line with our industry expertise and experience. We work behind the scenes to create content and social media presence specific to HR technology. Our Hive Tech Mic service is neutral and objective; giving vendors a much needed third-party voice and will get you on a client's coveted "short list".

Allow us to:

- ✓ Craft a targeted message that addresses the true needs of HR technology buyers
- ✓ Develop a strong presence across multiple social media channel
- ✓ Move into international markets without the high cost of building a physical presence
